Elie Attieh is a Senior Associate at Bridge Legal Group. He is a holder of an LL.M in Alternative Dispute Resolution & Arbitration from Lebanese University French Section (Filière Francophone). He graduated from La Sagesse University in Lebanon with a Masters in International Comparative Law. He is admitted to the Beirut Bar Association since 2004.

Mr. Attieh has a strong experience in domestic and cross border litigation and arbitration covering banking and insurance litigation matters with concentration on financial disputes, insurance claims, labor, criminal and commercial cases.

He had worked on various legal due diligence assignments involving local and regional insurance companies and financial institutions.

Mr. Attieh was involved in the negotiation and drafting of shareholders' agreements, share purchase agreements and corporate documentation in a major equity divestment transaction in the insurance sector and has advised GCC based companies in corporate restructuring, debt recovery, and the protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights.

Mr. Attieh currently acts for a local bank providing its management with legal and regulatory advice in connection with the Bank's operations, litigations and contractual engagements.
